

LOCAL EVENTS IN TABLOID FORM

Dozen firemen overcome by hasheesh fumes in fire at Kirshheimer Bros. twine and bag factory, 443-445 W. Ohio st., early today. All rescued. $75,000 damage.

Body of Foster Gault, 6, Maywood, missing from home since yesterday morning, found in park pond there today.

Emil Vanderboe, 59th and Wabash, shot and killed by W. R. Clements, Rock Island R. R. watchman. Clements alleges Vanderboe, with two other men, was robbing car in freight yards. Others escaped.

Frank Kancauss, 153 W. 45th place, held up under subway at Archer and Clark. Robbers then beat him. They were pursued and fired on by policeman, but escaped.

John Northrup, 7, 859 Rush street, struck by auto. Hospital.

Miss Pearl Turner, 27 North Western ave. has at last had Robert Nugent, West Jackson Blvd., arrested. Miss Turner obtained the warrant for his arrest last May when he, after she rejected him, threw a brick through the window, hitting Miss Turner in the face.

"In Japan, William Randolph Hearst and the Hearst newspapers are considered the most powerful of the American press."—Not from the Tribune.

In Borneo, the natives wear rings in their noses.

Willie Hearst is collecting other people's money for a Hearst Christmas fund.

"I wouldn't put $100 under a doormat for any copper after my talk with Chief Shippy. I'd be afraid they'd steal the doormat and charge me with taking the house."—Ben Hyman, police "fixer." Familiarity with our police force breedeth contempt.

"Public protest will be made by clubwomen and mothers of Rogers Park—" Examiner. Clubwomen and mothers is right.

Some department store girls could go to the opera by spending one week's salary for a ticket. Others would need to work two weeks.

In his will, Leon Mandel returns $50,000 of the millions he made out of department store slaves. The daily papers call it "charity."

Whatever else may be the matter with Chicago, you'll notice all the grand opera stars "love it—oh, so much"—while they're gathering its loose shekels.

One day, somebody's going to tell all the truth to the Civil Service Commission. Then there'll be apples to pay.

"Turkeys Gain Half a Cent."—Headline in Trib. Meaning that persons who have cornered turker market are gaining several half cents.

Pasquale Damico, 2248 Michigan ave., and Francesco Danelo, killed, and Stefano Danelo fatally wounded last night in battle under viaduct at Archer ave. and LaSalle street. All had police records, and alleged Black handers. Assailants, thought to have